

Speeches and Short Articles

ETHICAL ISSUES AND THE BUILDING OF INTERNATIONAL NORMS

*Amnon Carmi

ABSTRACT

This article is focused and devoted to two vital developments that are going to occur in the near future. The first part of the paper refers to the transition from the limited domain of "medical law" towards a spacious legal province that will be built up by entirety of directives with regard to the life and health of human beings. The second part of the paper refers to the transition from post-active regularization and imposition of moral liability towards pro-active preventive action of ethics education.

KEYWORDS: medical law; ethics education; bioethology

* Amnon Carmi practiced as a lawyer in Israel. He was appointed a Magistrate in 1965 and subsequently a Judge of the District Court of Haifa from 1974 till his retirement (1992). In addition to his duties as a judge, Amnon Carmi has been lecturing in Medical Law and Ethics at the universities of Tel Aviv and Haifa from 1975. Since 1992 he lectures as a Professor of Law at the Law Faculty of the University of Haifa. In 1972 he was elected President of the Society for Medicine and Law in Israel and served in this post until his retirement (2004). In 1991 he was elected President of the World Association for Medical Law. In 1996 he was appointed Director of the International Center for Health, Law and Ethics at the University of Haifa. In 2001 he was appointed as the Holder of the UNESCO Chair in Bioethics. In 1993 he was elected chairman of the Section on Psychiatry, Law and Ethics of the World Psychiatry Association.