Dr. Winnie Jo-Mei Ma is a Fellow of CIArb (Chartered Institute of Arbitrators), Advisor to CAA (Chinese Arbitration Association, Taipei), and Honorary Adjunct Assistant Professor of Bond University. She has been teaching law in English and Chinese at various institutions since September 2000, including Bond University, Adelaide University, National Taiwan University and Soochow University.

Winnie's publications and teaching focus on international commercial arbitration and private international law. Her SJD thesis, "Public Policy in the Enforcement of Arbitral Awards: Lessons for and from Australia", has achieved more than 16,000 full-text downloads since November 2006. She serves on the editorial boards of Contemporary Asia Arbitration Journal and Chinese (Taiwan) Yearbook of International Law and Affairs. She has been presenting at the annual Taipei International Conference on Arbitration and Mediation since 2008. She also coordinated an international project involving experts from Taiwan, Australia and Singapore (2012-2016), which culminated in a draft convention and submissions for the United Nations Convention on International Settlement Agreements Resulting from Mediation.

As the former Convenor of CIArb East Asia Branch Taiwan Chapter (2017-2019), Winnie coordinated and introduced all levels of international arbitration courses to Taiwan. She remains a CIArb approved faculty member.

Winnie is a listed arbitrator of CAA, CAAI (CAA International Arbitration Centre) and Hainan International Arbitration Court. As the former Deputy Secretary-General of CAA (2017-2019), Winnie co-drafted CAAI's Arbitration Rules, Guidelines on Case Management Conference, Code of Ethics for Arbitrators and Parties, Arbitrators Guide and Parties Guide. Winnie is also a member of the CAA Task Force on Amendment to Taiwan's Arbitration Law since 2018.
